Mission Statement

The School of Education exists to prepare educators for transformative service through Christ-centered programs. Candidates are equipped with the professional knowledge, skills, and dispositions to enable them to provide effective and compassionate professional practice and God-honoring leadership within the diverse communities they serve. Through its programs, the School of Education prepares caring and committed educational professionals equipped to serve within public, private, or global educational settings. Teacher education programs at University of Northwestern – St. Paul are approved by the Minnesota Professional Educators Licensing and Standards Board and lead to a recommendation for licensure within the state of Minnesota.

The following themes are woven throughout the teacher preparation programs and progress from early awareness and recognition to application and proficiency. Structure for their development is provided through the School of Education's conceptual framework, program outcomes, courses, and field experiences.

EDUCATION

Admission to a Teacher Education Program

Students wishing to enroll in a teacher education program at University of Northwestern must first be accepted into the education program through a formal admission process. Students pursuing a Music Education major must successfully complete the Music Major Progress Interview through the Department of Music & Theatre (see pages 68–69) prior to being accepted into a teacher education program.

To be considered for admission to a teacher education program, a student must:

1. Achieve a cumulative GPA of at least 2.75 on a 4.00 scale, based upon a minimum of 50 semester credits earned from University of Northwestern. A transfer student must be enrolled for at least one semester at University of Northwestern before being admitted to a teacher education program.
2. Submit a completed Open/Closed File form to the School of Education.
3. Complete EDU2215 Educational Foundations or an equivalent transfer course with a grade of C or above.
4. Submit evidence of a successful field experience in EDU2215 Educational Foundations or an equivalent transfer course.
5. Submit an autobiography and teaching decision paper to the School of Education.
6. Demonstrate English proficiency by receiving a B- or above in ENG1105 Composition or ENG1825 Honors Composition.

Students not achieving the required grade in ENG1105 or ENG1825 must successfully complete ENG0109 with a grade of C or above.

7. Achieve a grade of C or above in ENG2205 Critical Thinking and Writing or ENG2825 Honors Critical Thinking and Writing.
8. Demonstrate speech proficiency by receiving a B- or above in SPE1075 Public Speaking or SPE1825 Honors Public Speaking.

Students not achieving a B- or above in this course must submit a “Certification of Proficiency in Speech” form signed by the course instructor.

9. Demonstrate successful completion of the Minnesota Basic Skills Test requirement for teachers or demonstrate a first attempt at the MN NES exam with a remediation and retesting plan on file with the School of Education.

The Basic Skills Test requirement may be met by submitting qualifying scores through one of the following testing programs:

- ACT PLUS WRITING
Composite Score ≥ 22 and Combined English/Writing ≥ 21
- SAT
Reading ≥ 28 and Writing and Language ≥ 29 and Mathematics ≥ 550

The state of Minnesota requires demonstration of basic skills through these testing programs. Additional information is available in the School of Education Office.

10. Interview with the School of Education’s Admission and Retention Committee. The student must meet with the committee and be accepted into a teacher education program before taking selected 3000- and 4000-level education classes.

Retention in a Teacher Education Program

Retention in a teacher education program is based on the following:

1. Maintaining a cumulative GPA of at least 2.75.
2. Maintaining a GPA of at least 2.75 in the major.
3. Meeting all minimum grade requirements as defined in the university catalog.
4. Obtaining satisfactory field experience recommendations.
5. Successfully completing all Professional Behavior Plans and Academic Progress Plans required by the Admission and Retention Committee.
6. Students in a teacher education program must be able to demonstrate the health, safety, and stamina necessary for working with children and young adults. The Admission and Retention Committee may request documentation from a health care professional in verifying a student’s ability to meet health, safety, and stamina standards and may use this information in decisions related to long-term program planning.

If the appropriate GPA is not maintained, consideration may be given by the School of Education to dismiss the student from the teacher education program or to counsel the student into another program area.

A student receiving less than the minimum grade a second time in a course which the School of Education or major specifies as requiring a minimum grade, will result in automatic termination of enrollment in a teacher education program. Minimum grade requirements are listed on page 111.

If a student receives a negative evaluation from a field experience, that experience must be repeated successfully before student teaching. A field experience may be repeated only once.

The Admission and Retention Committee will make the final decision in dismissal cases. All dismissal cases may be appealed.

FOR FURTHER DETAILS REGARDING ADMISSION AND RETENTION IN TEACHER EDUCATION PROGRAMS, SEE THE UNIVERSITY OF NORTHWESTERN TEACHER EDUCATION HANDBOOK.

Teacher Licensure

Students who successfully complete teacher education programs at University of Northwestern and who meet Minnesota teacher licensure requirements are eligible to apply to the Minnesota Professional Educator Licensing and Standards Board (PELSB) for licensure in their program areas. Students should follow the licensure application process outlined in the Teacher Education Handbook. Copies of the handbook are available in the School of Education office and on its Confluence site. All first-time licensure candidates are required to pay a fee and have a criminal background check completed as part of the licensure application process.

Licensure candidates must meet the licensure requirements that are current at the time of program completion. These requirements take precedence over all earlier curriculum requirements. Students are encouraged to work closely with an academic advisor in order to be aware of changes in licensure requirements that may affect their programs.

Candidates applying for Minnesota teacher licensure are required by Minnesota teacher licensure laws to successfully complete standardized tests as part of the licensure system. Information about these tests is available in the Teacher Education Handbook and in the School of Education office.

Tk20 CampusTools HigherEd System

All students who have declared a teacher education program as their major are required to be subscribed to the Tk20 CampusTools HigherEd System (Tk20). Students are charged a one-time fee for this service that provides access to the system for at least seven years. This allows candidates to retain work completed through their courses for use in electronic portfolios even after program completion. The system also provides the essential platform for departmental assessment and is critical for the video-based assessments used in student teaching. Students will be charged this fee when enrolled in EDU2215.

Teacher Licensure Program Portfolio

All students completing a teacher licensure program must successfully complete a licensure program portfolio as defined within the Teacher Education Handbook and Portfolio Handbook available in the School of Education office and on its Moodle site. Portfolios are typically submitted for review in the semester preceding student teaching.

Post-Baccalaureate Teacher Licensure Program

Students who already have an earned bachelor's degree and wish to complete the requirements for Minnesota teacher licensure may apply for the post-baccalaureate teacher licensure program. Candidates for the post-baccalaureate program must be admitted to University of Northwestern and meet all requirements for admission to teacher education programs. In addition, they must have earned a bachelor's degree from a four-year, regionally accredited institution with a GPA of at least 2.75 on a 4.00 scale. The bachelor's degree major must be applicable to the area of licensure, as determined by the School of Education. Candidates interested in the post-baccalaureate teacher licensure program should contact the Office of Admissions. No degree is granted for post-baccalaureate teacher education coursework completed at Northwestern. An individual program plan is designed for each candidate and requirements are met through the completion of courses offered through the traditional undergraduate program.

Educational Studies Major

A degree program in educational studies is available upon recommendation by the School of Education. The major does not lead to teacher licensure in the state of Minnesota. Students interested in this major should consult with their academic advisor or the Assistant Dean of the School of Education. This program is not open to students with pre-professional program standing.

Dual Licensure Options

Students may choose to complete licensure in two fields. This typically adds a minimum of two semesters to the academic program. Students who wish to complete a dual licensure program should contact the School of Education office for details regarding program planning.

Admission to Student Teaching

All students who have been admitted to a teacher education program and who wish to complete student teaching must be formally admitted to student teaching in their major.

This is accomplished by completing the following procedures:

1. The student determines with his/her advisor the projected year and semester of student teaching, based on successful completion of EDU3235 Instructional Foundations and all methods courses and reports this to the Director of Student Teaching. EDU3235 must be taken before methods courses.

2. The student attends an application meeting with the Director of Student Teaching during the fall semester of the school year preceding student teaching.
3. The student completes the application material for student teaching and returns it to the Director of Student Teaching by the deadline set at the orientation meeting. Late applications may result in an appeal and a delay in the student teaching semester. INCOMPLETE APPLICATIONS WILL NOT BE ACCEPTED. The student must notify the Director of Student Teaching of any changes in the information.
4. The student must meet with the Admission and Retention Committee during the semester preceding student teaching. This meeting is called and led by the Coordinator of the major in which the student is seeking licensure. During this meeting, the committee will review the student's application for student teaching and provide a recommendation regarding admission to student teaching.

In order to receive final clearance by the Admission and Retention Committee to student teach, the student MUST satisfy the following requirements:

- a. Have a cumulative GPA of at least 2.75 in all University of Northwestern coursework at the end of the semester preceding student teaching.
- b. Have a cumulative GPA of at least 2.75 within the major and pass all major and minor field courses with a grade of C or above.
- c. Remove all course incompletes and any grades below C in the education core or grades below departmental standards within the major or minor. Courses requiring minimum grades before student teaching are listed below.
- d. Successfully complete all coursework in the education major or minor, including field placements.
- e. Successfully complete all Professional Behavior Plans. Obtain clearance from the School of Education office.
- f. Successfully complete all Academic Progress Plans. Obtain clearance from the School of Education office.

Students currently enrolled in their last methods courses may meet with the Admission and Retention Committee. However, final approval for student teaching is contingent upon satisfactory completion of all education core and methods courses.

5. Placement confirmation information will be sent from the Director of Student Teaching to the student. Although this information may be received prior to meeting with the Admission and Retention Committee, final approval for student teaching will be granted only after the student's meeting with the committee and demonstrating to them the completion of all requirements.

Once admitted to student teaching, it is the student teacher's responsibility to inform the Director of Student Teaching of any change or requests for change of status regarding the student teacher's health, employment, and activities involvement. Requests for change of status will be reviewed by the Admission and Retention Committee.
6. The student teacher is required to register for EDU4835, Seminar in Professional Issues, the same semester as student teaching. Orientation sessions precede the placement start date. Due to liability issues, absences from any orientation session will result in the student being ineligible to student teach. In such cases, the student teaching experience will be rescheduled, usually the next semester.

EDUCATIONRetention in Student Teaching

Retention in student teaching is dependent upon satisfactory evaluations from the cooperating teacher and the UNW supervisor throughout the student teaching placement.

Should academic or professional concerns regarding the student teacher's performance arise, an intervention meeting with the Admission and Retention Committee will be scheduled by the coordinator of the major.

Withdrawal from a student teaching placement for any reason results in termination of all future student teaching placements and will require the candidate to reapply to the student teaching program.

Additional student teaching may be required as recommended by the Admission and Retention Committee as supported by the final evaluation submitted by the cooperating teacher or the UNW supervisor.

Tuition refund and transcript notation policies defined in the catalog for all Northwestern courses apply to withdrawal from student teaching.

Readmission to Student Teaching

A student who wishes to be readmitted to student teaching after a withdrawal or termination from student teaching must reapply for admission to student teaching. Student teaching may be repeated only once, for a total of two attempts. All repeats of student teaching are subject to the approval of the School of Education Admission and Retention Committee. Procedures for reapplying to student teaching may be found in the Teacher Education Handbook, which is available in the School of Education Office and School of Education Confluence site.

Admission Procedures

Applicants desiring to pursue a Bachelor of Music Education degree should follow standard admissions procedures with the Office of Admissions. Entering freshmen who indicate their intent to work toward a music education degree are considered pre-music majors until they successfully complete both the Music Major Progress Interview and admission to the teacher education program.

Auditions: Ensembles and Private Lessons

All music majors are required to participate in a major performance ensemble and to take private study in their primary performance area. Auditions are held during new student orientation, which occurs the week before classes begin, and designated summer auditions.

Music Major Progress Interview

During the sophomore year, the Music Major Progress Interview is to be held before the music faculty. The Interview is to determine the student's progress in lower-level music courses and to formally grant status as a music major, thereby permitting access to 4000-level music courses. Please contact the Music Office for information and guidelines regarding the Music Major Progress Interview.

Music Theory Placement Exam

Music major applicants with no previous college theory coursework must take the Online Theory Placement Exam before the day of their audition. Test results are used as part of the admission decision and to place students in the appropriate theory course. More information is available from the Music Office.

Transfer Students

- All transfer music major applicants must go through the Music Audition Application process (including the online Music Theory Placement Exam) in order to be admitted (unwsp.edu/music).
- At least 50% of the required ensemble credits for a music major/minor must be completed at UNW.
- The number of applied lesson credits accepted by UNW will be determined after one semester of applied lessons at UNW.
- Transfer credit for coursework in music theory or sight singing/ear training will be accepted only by placement exam. This policy applies to both transfer applicants and current UNW students. Transfer credit and/or placement in the UNW theory and sight singing/ear training sequence will be based on the applicant's performance on the exam. Contact the Department of Music & Theatre to schedule an exam (651-631-5218 or 888-878-5514).

Grades

All coursework in the major, both music and education, must be passed with a grade of C or above.

Special Education Minor 20 cr

The Special Education minor provides foundational preparation for working with special populations of students labeled within the categories of EBD (Emotional Behavioral Disorders) or SLD (Specific Learning Disabilities). The minor does not lead to full teacher licensure in these areas. Students completing the minor need to continue their studies on a graduate level in order to fully qualify for licensure as a special education teacher.

Required Courses: EDU2215, 2215L, 3285, 3285L; SPD2215, 2215L, 3215, 3218, 4315, 4415, 4415L.

Students who are not education majors may complete a special education minor for non-school settings. Students choosing this option must complete an application and submit it to the School of Education office prior to enrolling in any SPD courses. A minimum cumulative GPA of 2.50 and an advisor's recommendation are required for admission to the minor. Students completing the non-school minor replace SPD4415 and SPD4415L with SPD4425 and SPD4425L.
